LODGE MAY NAME RICHMOND MAN

gold medal annually for the best essay on the work of the order written by some Jewish boy or girl. He also recommended that the organization take some decisive steps to put itself on record as opposed to the "white slave traffic."

The report was referred to a special committee, which will review its recommendations and report to the convention to-day.

Secretary Levy read his annual report, giving a wealth of statistical information as to the order. It also was referred to a special committee for review. Secretary Levy announced at the close of his report that after eleven years of service matters of a personal nature would prevent his being a candidate for re-election.

It was then that there was a general undercurrent of suggestion that Mr. Levy should be placed in line for one of the executive offices, either as president or vice-president, and a number of men expressed the view that the presidency should go this year to a Richmond man.

By a rising vote a telegram of sympathy was ordered sent to Hon. Simon Wolf, of Washington, who had been expected to speak on Sunday night and was detained by the sudden illness of his wife. Treasurer Aaron B. Goodman, unable to be present on account of his advancing years, forwarded his annual report and tendered his resignation. The matter of electing his successor was passed by until this afternoon, when other officers are to be elected.

Some Committee Reports.
Interesting reports were submitted by a number of committees, including the general committee, the deputies from the different states, and the representatives to the Constitution Grand Lodge, which met last month in Washington, and which is the supreme lodge of the B'Nai B'Rith throughout the world.

The committee reports were docketed for debate and action to-day. In the reports from the State deputies, that from Virginia was presented by Dr. Calisch, who said that the two most active lodges are located in Richmond and Norfolk. Some of the lodges in smaller Virginia cities have not prospered, he reported, and in some cases they have surrendered their charters. Several of these, however, are shortly to be reorganized, and Dr. Calisch was most optimistic of the future of the order in this State, saying that it had been on a more healthy basis than it had been in years.

Rabbi George Solomon, of Savannah, a delegate from the District Lodge to the Constitution Grand Lodge in Washington last month, made an address on the work of the order, which proved of great interest to the delegates. In eloquent terms he eulogized the work of the B'Nai B'Rith in this country and abroad, calling especial attention to the fine quality of men who compose the membership of the lodges in each community. In the course of his address he told something of the work of the European lodges in defending the Jewish race from oppression and slander and abuse. He was warmly applauded a number of times.

Dr. Calisch Speaks.
Dr. Calisch, another of the delegates to the Washington Convention of the Constitution Grand Lodge, also told something of the meeting, adding interesting anecdotes and personal mention of some of the prominent men taking part. He mentioned incidentally that he had been the creator on the occasion of a pilgrimage of the delegates from all parts of the world to Mt. Vernon, where a wreath had been placed on the tomb of Washington. Dr. Calisch told of the visit paid by the delegates to President Taft, and in the course of his remarks became eloquent in telling of the part the Jew has played in the making of American history in the days from Washington to Taft. He emphasized the loyalty of the people of his race to this country, and asserted that they are not strangers in a strange land, but a part and parcel of its make-up, not by tolerance, but by inherent right based on the formation of the nation and the length of time the Jewish people have wrought for the freedom of America as good citizens and loyal men. With some emotion he referred in closing to the reports of a revival of hostility in Russia to the Jewish people, and a return to the persecutions and massacres of a few years ago. This hostile attitude toward the Jew, he termed, the "exquisite refinement of cruelty."

"This is another of the things the B'Nai B'Rith will have to take care of," he said, advocating a vigorous and aggressive world-wide policy for the defense of the Jewish race throughout the world. It was in this connection, the need of an organization to defend the fair name of a slandered people, that he indignantly denounced a recent magazine article which sought to lay on Jewish offenders responsibility for a large part of the "white slave" traffic in the larger cities of this country.

Many Social Features.
About 2 o'clock the convention adjourned for lunch, and the afternoon was spent in an automobile tour of points of interest in and around the city. While a number of committees were in session at Murphy's Hotel and elsewhere, there was no afternoon or night session of the convention, the time being given up to showing the delegates the city and giving them a good time. At 6 o'clock last night a brilliant reception was tendered the delegates and those accompanying them by the Jefferson Club, at its hands some new club house on Allen Avenue and West Grace Street.

The social features of the convention are being made a prominent part, most of the delegates being accompanied by their wives and families. The details of the social features are in charge of the following committees:
Executive—Edwin L. Levy, chairman; Rabbi E. N. Calisch, H. T. Ezekiel, Joseph L. Levy, L. L. Lighter, M. I. Blum, H. S. Bloomberg, H. S. Wallerstein, H. S. Bloomberg.
Entertainment—Moses May, chairman; Arthur Levy, I. J. Marcus, A. L. Straus, Dr. C. A. Labenberg, Lewis Kaufman, Sam Wallerstein, Joseph

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS B'NAI B'RITH CONVENTION

Wallerstein, Ernest E. Straus, Gus F. Ezekiel.
Ladies—Mrs. Joseph L. Levy, chairman; Mrs. E. N. Calisch, Mrs. Arthur Levy, Mrs. A. L. Straus, Mrs. C. A. Labenberg, Mrs. Moses May, Mrs. I. J. Marcus, Miss Yetta Wallerstein, Miss Carrie Kaufman.

Program for To-Day.
The program for to-day is as follows:

9:00 A. M.—Convention assemblies at Beth Ahabah Temple for business session; reports of committees, election of officers, etc.

1:00 P. M.—Luncheon tendered the wives of delegates and other visitors at the Jefferson Hotel. At the same hour luncheon to convention delegates at the Jefferson Club.
3:00 P. M.—Bridge whist party tendered by Rimon Lodge in honor of the visitors at the Jefferson Club.
Such members as can remain over to-night will be taken in charge by the entertainment committee, and some features of social entertainment provided, though the nature of these has not been announced. Members have merely been requested to make any other engagements for to-night, and the suggestion is that there is a surprise in store. The convention proper will probably reach an adjournment this afternoon following the election of officers.

Anderson, S. C., May 23.—Winston-Salem had little trouble defeating the locals this afternoon. Gorham, for the locals, stole three bases, including home.

Pleasant, Refreshing, Beneficial.

Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna appeals to the cultured and the well-informed and the healthy because its component parts are simple and wholesome and because it acts without disturbing the natural functions, as it is wholly free from every objectionable quality or substance. In its production a pleasant and refreshing syrup of the figs of California is united with the laxative and carminative properties of certain plants known to act most beneficially on the human system, when its gentle cleansing is desired. To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine, for sale by all reputable druggists; one size only, price fifty cents a bottle. The name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is always plainly printed upon the front of every package of the genuine.

GRIFFIN MAKING GOOD.
Former Richmond College Pitcher Shows Up Fine in League Circle.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., May 23.—Harry Griffin, the Fluvanna boy, who got his start as a pitcher with the Richmond College team, thus far has gotten away with a larger percentage of his games than any other local twirler, having won four, lost one and tied one. Griffin has been going unusually well, his form being excellent, his control being the great feature of his work. In the last twenty innings he has pitched there have been only two runs scored off of him, and three runs in the last thirty-one innings. In the fifty-five innings Griffin has pitched in this season there have been fifteen runs scored, an average of less than three to the game.

Local lovers of the game now believe Griffin will be one of the leading pitchers of the circuit this year. Pete Behan, who has been playing short field for the Shoemakers thus far this season, was released last night in order to bring the team into the player limit.

For the present Owen Jackson will play at short, and if he continues to go good, he will probably be kept there. This also means that Harry Levy will hold down right field.

The team will have to get rid of one more player on June 1, when John Sexton reports, and this will probably be between Lloyd and Brooks, the pitchers who were picked up in Norfolk and Richmond, respectively.

Higgins Goes to Louisville.
Louisville, Ky., May 23.—The Louisville baseball team to-day got Pitcher Higgins from the St. Louis Nationals.

Richmond at Danville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., May 23.—In a brilliant exhibition put up by both sides, Danville won the first game of the series here this afternoon with Richmond by the score of 4 to 1. Dutch Revelle and Maxberry were the opposing box men, and both pitched beautiful games, though the former was a bit wild in the opening inning, which cost him the game.

In the first Revelle walked Rickert, the first man up. Hall was an easy out. Schrader was given a pass and Griffin was hit on the arm, filling the bases. Hooker hit for two bags, and although Hale made a good try, Rickert and Schrader came racing home. Gaston struck out, and Griffin and Hooker scored on Laughlin's hit.

Richmond's turn came in the fifth, as the result of Titman's three-bagger to deep right, followed by Wallace's single.

The game was marked by some brilliant fielding. Titman made a beautiful catch of Rickert's scorching to right-center, and Schrader pulled down a high drive, which made the crowd breathe easier.

Sallors Take First Game.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Wilson, N. C., May 23.—To-day marked the opening of the ball season in this city, with Wilmington against the home team. The opening was marked by a big parade of decorated automobiles, headed by a brass band. A large excursion from Washington, Greenville and neighboring towns brought many visitors. Also a large number of enthusiastic fans wended their way from the city by the sea to cheer their team on to victory.

Cowells started in the box for the home team, in which he was touched up for five hits, while Kelly, of the opposing team, held the Tobaccoists down to three. Cowells was not in his usual form, and he retired in the sixth in favor of Foreman, who held the Salts down, not a hit being made off his delivery.

Big Crowd at Fayetteville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fayetteville, N. C., May 23.—Sixteen hundred people saw Fayetteville lose to Raleigh, 4 to 2, in the opening game of the Eastern Carolina League season to-day. Turner pitched a splendid game. Luyster had the visitors at his mercy until the sixth, not one of them reaching second till that inning, when three hits, one of which should have been fielded, tied the score. Two hits, a pass and two errors allowed three more in the eighth. With proper support Luyster should have won his game. Mullin scored both local runs in the ninth inning, he hit to deepest right for a home run. Clemens, formerly of Fayetteville, was applauded for his work for the visitors.

Score by innings:

NATIONAL BODY FORMED.

Delegates Organize American Aeronautical Association.
New York, May 23.—Delegates of aeronautical associations affiliated with the Aero Club of America, at a meeting at the headquarters of the latter organization here to-day, decided to form a national aeronautical body for the administration of aeronautical affairs of national or local character in the United States.

A resolution unanimously adopted brought the organization into being, under the title of American Aeronautical Association. The officers, who were elected pro tem, pending new elections to be held June 22, are:

George M. Myers, president; A. B. Lambert, first vice-president; J. V. Martin, second vice-president; Victor Loughhead, secretary, and Jerome Joyce, treasurer.

Action concerning the conduct and locality of the forthcoming international aviation meet was deferred until to-morrow. It already has been decided to hold the contest on Long Island, near Hempstead, but the exact place has not been selected.

The delegates at to-day's meeting included A. B. Lambert, representing the St. Louis Aero Club and the Indianapolis Aero Club; W. B. Strang and George M. Myers, Kansas City; Jerome Joyce and J. Albert Hughes, Baltimore; James E. Plew, Illinois Aero Club; J. V. Martin and E. C. Brown, Cambridge, Mass.; J. S. Fancullin, Washington, D. C.; M. Satterfield, Buffalo, and others.

President Plays Golf.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 23.—The Loantaka, which was obliged to withdraw from the Philadelphia to Havana motor boat race, after breaking down four times on her way to the sea, came back to port this afternoon. Defective engines, which had not been properly tested, caused the little craft to abandon the contest, according to the owner, H. S. Peters, of Dover, N. J. The engines had just been installed, it is said, and should have had at least a two-weeks' test before the boat was taken out for a long-distance run. The Loantaka was the largest of those entered in the race. All went well with the Loantaka until she was off Bombay Hook at 5:21 o'clock Saturday afternoon.
